

FABIAN SCHWARZINGER

IF YOU LIKE READING...

then this is a little bit about myself. The Internet says I am an ISFJ-T. That means I am loyal, reliable and also take my work personally. My friends say I am ambitious and have a special (they mean weird :D) sense of humor. I, on the other hand, say that I'm determined, hating to stagnate. I much rather love to constantly evolve and improve, which I also carry through to my relationships and colleagues. Check out my website to learn more: fabianschwarzingler.work
